ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT RIDER DISCLOSURE

The benefit received under any accelerated death benefit rider may be taxable. Receipt of the benefit may adversely affect your eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. You should consult your personal tax advisor or the Social Security Administration before requesting an accelerated death benefit.

Disclosure for Term Life Insurance Policies

If you are applying for term life insurance benefits, this disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider and its effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the rider. There is no premium charge for the rider.

Benefit Description

If the Insured is diagnosed as having a Terminal Illness while the policy is in force, you may make a one-time election to receive an accelerated death benefit up to $1,000,000 or 80% of the policy's death benefit, whichever is less. A Terminal Illness is a medical condition that, within a reasonable degree of certainty, will result in the Insured's death within 12 months or less from the date a physician signs the statement of proof of terminal illness.

We will reduce the Terminal Illness benefit by an actuarial discount rate and a $100 charge. The actuarial discount rate will not be greater than 6%.

Effect of the Accelerated Death Benefit on the Policy

When we pay the accelerated death benefit, the policy will continue with a reduced face amount and a reduced premium.

Disclosure for Universal Life Insurance Policies

If you are applying for universal life insurance benefits, this disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider, the Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider, and their effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the riders. There is no premium or cost of insurance for these riders. The Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider is not available when the Long-Term Care Benefits Rider is issued.

Benefit Description - Accelerated Death Benefit For Terminal Illness Rider

If the insured is diagnosed as having a Terminal Illness while the policy is in force, you may make a one-time election to receive an accelerated death benefit. The sum of all requested accelerations under the Terminal Illness Rider and the Chronic Illness Rider may not exceed the lesser of $1,000,000 or 80% of the specified amount as of the date of the first requested acceleration.

A Terminal Illness is a medical condition that, within a reasonable degree of medical certainty, will result in the insured's death within 12 months or less from the date a physician signs the statement of proof of terminal illness.

We will reduce the Terminal Illness benefit by an actuarial discount rate and a $100 charge, and the pro-rated amount of any outstanding loans. The actuarial discount rate will not be greater than 6%.

Benefit Description - Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider - (This rider is not available when the Long-Term Care Benefits Rider is issued.)

If the insured is diagnosed as being Chronically Ill while the policy is in force, you may elect to receive an accelerated death benefit.

Chronically Ill means that within the last 12 months a physician has certified that for a continuous period of at least 90 days, the insured is: (a) unable to perform (without substantial assistance from another person) at least two activities of daily living; or (b) requires substantial supervision to protect himself or herself from threats and safety due to severe cognitive impairments.

The sum of all requested accelerations may not exceed the lesser of $1,000,000 or 80% of the specified amount as of the date of the first requested acceleration. Each requested acceleration may not exceed the per diem allowance permitted by section 101(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code multiplied by the number of days in the current calendar year that the insured is expected to be Chronically Ill. The Internal Revenue Service announces the per diem limit for each calendar year.

You may elect to receive the Chronic Illness benefit more than once, and there must be at least 12 months between acceleration requests. In contrast, you may elect to receive the Terminal Illness benefit only once. If you elect to receive the Terminal Illness benefit, the Chronic Illness benefit is no longer available.

We will reduce the Chronic Illness benefit by an actuarial discount rate multiplied by the insured's life expectancy in years, a $100 charge, and the pro-rated amount of any outstanding loans.

Effect of the Accelerated Death Benefit on the Policy

When we pay any accelerated death benefit, the following will occur: (a) we will reduce the specified amount, accumulation value, and any loan by the same proportion as the death benefit; and (b) the monthly deduction and cost of insurance charge will be based on the reduced specified amount.

HIV Antibody Test
Information Form for Insurance Applicant

Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company
United of Omaha Life Insurance Company

WRITTEN INFORMED CONSENT FOR HIV ANTIBODY TESTING

(Conventional Testing – Not for Use with a Rapid HIV Test)

Test Subject or Number:_____ Date:_____Time: _____(AM)_____(PM)

I hereby grant my permission for a test to detect whether I have antibodies to HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus) in my body.

HIV Testing is voluntary and requires your consent in writing. The purpose of HIV antibody testing is to show whether you are infected with HIV, the virus that causes AIDS. Any test result that indicates that antibodies for HIV are present is considered positive for HIV infection.

Before you consent to be tested for HIV, your healthcare provider should speak to you about:

- How HIV is passed from person to person and mother to baby;
- Steps to take that may prevent the transmission of HIV; and
- The meaning of an HIV antibody test result.

If you agree with the following statements and want to consent to HIV testing, please sign this form. I have been counseled about the benefits of having an HIV test and understand that:

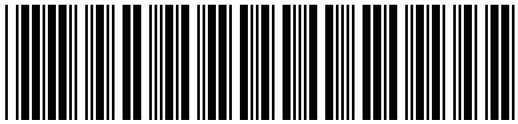
- Human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) is the virus that causes AIDS;
- HIV is spread by sexual intercourse, so all sexually active persons are potentially at risk for HIV infection;
- HIV is spread by sharing needles with another person during injection of drugs, so all injection drug users are potentially at risk for HIV infection;
- HIV can be passed from a mother to her baby during pregnancy, at delivery, and through breastfeeding; and
- HIV antibody test results are confidential, and the law protects me from discrimination.

I understand that a positive result does not mean I have AIDS, but indicates that I have HIV infection. I understand that if my test results are positive, I will be offered HIV counseling.

I understand that test results may indicate that a person has HIV antibodies when the person does not have the antibodies (a false positive result) or the test may fail to detect that a person has antibodies to the virus when the person does in fact have these antibodies (a false negative result).

If my HIV antibody test result is negative, no further testing will be done at this time. A negative HIV antibody test result most likely means that I am not infected with HIV, but it may not detect recent infection.

If my HIV antibody test result is positive, this means that antibodies to the virus were detected and that I am HIV infected.



Confidentiality of HIV Information:

If you take the HIV test, your test results are confidential. Under Illinois law, confidential HIV information can be given only to people to whom you allow it to be given by your written approval, to people who need to know your HIV status in order to provide medical care and services, including: an authorized agent or employee of a health facility or a healthcare provider if the health facility or provider is authorized to obtain test results; those who are exposed to blood/body fluids in the course of their employment; and organizations that review the services you receive.

The law also allows your confirmed HIV test results to be released: to public health officials as required by law; for payment for care and treatment; to a temporary caretaker of children taken into protective custody by the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services; and to any other entity permitted by the AIDS Confidentiality Act.

I understand that my test results will be kept confidential to the extent provided by law. In addition, I understand that I may withdraw from the testing at any point in time prior to the completion of laboratory tests. I understand that my testing is voluntary.

I agree to be tested and I agree that I may be told my test results.

I agree that if the result of my HIV test is positive I may be referred to another healthcare provider for follow-up testing and care.

I have been advised about the purpose, potential uses, limitations and meaning of the test results; the voluntary nature of the test; the right to withdraw consent at any time prior to the completion of laboratory tests; and the confidentiality protections under the law. The information presented above has been completely and clearly explained to me, and all of my questions have been answered. I hereby authorize my physician or facility to collect an oral or blood specimen and perform an HIV antibody test on that specimen.

Illinois Civil Union Law Notice

Signed by Governor Quinn on January 31, 2011, the Religious Freedom Protection and Civil Union Act (Public Act 96-1513, the "Civil Union Law") allowed both same-sex and different-sex couples to enter into a civil union with all of the obligations, protections, and legal rights that Illinois provides to married heterosexual couples. A civil union is a legal relationship granted to unmarried adult partners by the State of Illinois. The Civil Union Law ensures that civil unions and marriage are treated identically under Illinois law. For purposes of Illinois law, the term "spouse" (and other terms that denote the spousal relationship) now includes a party to a civil union.

This notice is to inform you that in compliance with the Act, effective June 1, 2011, under all Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company or its affiliated companies insurance policies and riders covering Illinois residents, any benefit, coverage or right, governed by Illinois state law, provided to a person considered a spouse by marriage will also be provided to a party to a civil union and any benefit, coverage or right, governed by Illinois state law, provided to a child of a marriage will also be provided to a child of a civil union.

Federal law may impact how eligibility and benefits for certain insurance products are treated. For example, federal tax laws that afford favorable income-deferral options to an opposite-sex spouse under the Internal Revenue Code do not currently extend such rights to a same-sex spouse (e.g., the Federal Defense of Marriage Act).

More information of the act or how it affects insurance coverage is available by contacting the company.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
- a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
- you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
- your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
- you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.
- In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights contact:
